When you're working with clients, co-counsel or subject matter experts, being able to meet with anyone at anytime, no matter where they are in the world, is critical to collecting information and completing a case. You could bring everyone together for on-site meetings, but that can be time consuming and cost-prohibitive. Instead, you can collaborate on case work, review contracts and brief clients online and over the phone, enabling you to work more efficiently and effectively.

WORK MORE EFFICIENTLY AND EFFECTIVELY

InterCall, the world's largest conferencing provider, offers communication services tailored to meet your needs. You can hold status meetings with your clients, consult with co-workers in other practices and interview experts without leaving your office. InterCall offers more features and services to help you connect with all parties relevant to your project, whether they are in another state, another country or just across town. By using InterCall's audio, web and video conferencing services, you can:

- + Simplify the deposition process with digital recording, broadcasting, archiving and transcription
- + Collaborate with partners and colleagues on contracts and other legal documents in real-time, without leaving your office
- + Conduct conferences globally at any time without a reservation
- + Improve client billing efficiency with customized invoices, online billing statements and special coding that makes billing charges back to the client easier
- + Consult with clients and opposing counsel
- + Maximize valuable billable time by reducing the amount of hours spent on non-essential case tasks, such as travel and meeting coordination

STREAMLINE YOUR PROJECT WORKFLOWS

With InterCall's solutions for the legal industry, you get services that improve your communication with clients and co-workers so you can be more efficient. From holding a simple conference call at a moment's notice to collaborating on briefs and contracts to recording and transcribing depositions, we offer everything you need to streamline project workflows and eliminate time constraints. To foster employee development, we also provide services that let you conduct remote training and continuing education to the members of your firm. By using our services, you save time, increase productivity and enable collaboration from anywhere at anytime.

A PARTNER IN YOUR SUCCESS

When you need to bring people together so you can move forward with a case, InterCall provides the tools you need to quickly and easily conduct interviews, finalize deals or collaborate with and train co-workers. We have the tools you need to work more efficiently so you have more time available for billable hours. Our reliable and easy-to-use conferencing platforms, personal support and variety of services help you easily connect with the people who are critical to your success.
