

InterCall Streaming

Video Production Services

For more information:

In U.S.: 800.374.2441
www.intercall.com
info@intercall.com

In Canada:
877.333.2666
www.intercall.ca

Video production services offer a complete portfolio of professional broadcast services to help make your vision a reality. For more information, including pricing, please contact your meeting consultant.

Production Services	Description
Multi-camera live studio services	Broadcast sets, professional global studios, teleprompters, news-quality hosts and live graphics can increase the effectiveness and value of events for less cost than you may think.
Multi-camera live remote services	Get all the services of professional studios on-site at your offices or conference venues. Packages available for all budgets.
Broadcast transmission services	Broadcast quality SD and HD transmission services via satellites and video fiber networks with guaranteed QOS.
Single camera crews	Single camera with crew available globally to enable live events with single presenters or record on-demand events conveniently in your office. Makeup and teleprompting available upon request.
Green screen studio services for virtual environments	Professional green screen stages with SD and HD recording, teleprompting and matte generation services.
Event staging services	Professional audio/visual event staging services available including stage, set, lighting, crew, audio, video and projection.
Professional video editing, motion graphics and encoding	The latest motion graphics and editing are available including title graphics, rich media and Flash presentations.
Professional audio services	Live audio hosts, radio talk show formats, live venue event services, audio recording and editing.