Training customers, employees and partners is a key component to increasing product usage, selling your services and implementing new business processes. To teach everyone everything they need to know, you can fly people to a central location—requiring time out of the office and the usual travel expenses—or you can conduct training sessions online for a fraction of the time and cost.

INTERACTIVE ONLINE TRAINING SESSIONS

InterCall, the largest conferencing provider in the world, has the solutions you need to connect with your students around the globe. Our services let you hold online training sessions on compliance and regulatory issues, process improvement, product updates and continuing education initiatives. InterCall offers more features and services to make your online training sessions just as successful as those held on-site. By using InterCall's audio, web and video conferencing services, you can:

- + Increase productivity – reduce travel time and budgets so you can focus on your training content
- + Track and manage student data – easily determine which courses students have attended and measure content comprehension and effectiveness
- + Stay on deadline – conduct more training sessions more frequently and reach a wider audience

MORE ENGAGING AND SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

With InterCall's solutions for training professionals, you get services that make it easy to plan and conduct online training sessions with students, no matter where they are in the world. From pre-course services, such as fulfillment and registration, to interactive in-session capabilities to extensive post-course reports, you have access to a full suite of services and features to keep your audience engaged and make your training program successful.

EXTRA SUPPORT FROM THE EXPERTS

If you're short on time and resources or just want some extra assistance to make sure your event is flawless, InterCall's expert event services team helps you plan, conduct and wrap-up your seminar so you can focus on your message. From recommending appropriate features and conducting rehearsals to monitoring the live event and gathering report information, our dedicated specialists work with you, ensuring a more professional and successful seminar.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TRAINING SESSIONS

When you need to get employees, customers and partners up to speed, conducting the training online lets you meet with hundreds of people at once, interact with your audience and make the sessions available for later viewing. Our comprehensive services help you save time so you can develop training content and conduct more sessions, making you and your company more productive. By partnering with InterCall, you'll have a vendor you can trust to ensure that you and your students get the most from your training sessions.
